CLAIM BILLION GALLONS DAILY

Spokesman Presents Plan To Water Board

PIPE LINE NECESSARY

Propose Sale Neches Canal, Beaumont Irrigation Co.

Overtures to dispose of a fresh water project yesterday were made to a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the city commission for a consideration of approximately $1,100,000.

The proposal was made to the joint committee in behalf of the Neches Canal company and the Beaumont Irrigation company, who in brief would transfer their fresh water holdings to a district including Port Arthur for the above named sum.

Reservoir at El Vista.

A Joe Broussard and Emmett Fletcher, representatives of the companies offering the joint proposal, presented the plans to the meeting yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce rooms and outlined plans whereby Port Arthur might realize its dream of fresh water.

In brief the companies wished to turn their property, including their canals over to a district to be created which would include this city. By this means, the men claimed, water might be brought to Port Arthur by pumps out of a reservoir to be constructed in the neighborhood of El Vista. The water is to be transported through the canals to a point about three miles from the proposed reservoir.

From the reservoir it would be pumped into the city mains.

The place from which the water was to be taken was located near that where Beaumont gets its water and via the canals the necessity of piping it would be eliminated, save for a stretch where the proposed line would cross Taylor's Bayou. The source named was said to be between the Johnson and Taylor bayous.

Through this project, it was claimed by the sponsors, the available water supply would be sufficient to furnish 400,000 gallons a minute to the city mains or roughly 1,000,000,000 daily whereas 1,000,000,000 gallons are furnished through the present supply.

The possibility of the Neches river drying up under the continual strain of such a demand might be eliminated, Broussard said, by the construction of a reservoir at the source of supply large enough to store up a 70 days' supply of water for the city.

In view of the plan proposed it would be necessary to construct approximately three miles of carrier, pipe or canal, to the proposed El Vista reservoir from the point where the canals offered in the proposal stop.

In addition to supplying Port Arthur with fresh water, in the plan submitted by Mr. Broussard, the district which would be organized to handle the project would also be entitled to water for irrigation purposes.

No definite action will be taken on the project offered yesterday, for some time, it was understood.

Meanwhile the same committee will meet tomorrow afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms to hear a plan to be proposed by Perry McFadden. It is thought that McFadden's plan will also deal with the fresh water project.

HOUSTON SINGER DIES IN MIDDLE OF SONG

HOUSTON, Oct. 18.—Stricken with a heart attack while he was singing at the birthday celebration of Jackie H. Gies Club last night, F. E. Jockowski, 33, died at a hospital here early today.

The celebration was being brought to a close. The entire club joined in a final song when suddenly Jockowski clapped his hand to his heart and crumpled to the floor. He died a short while afterward.

Oklahoma Rivers Down, Little Danger, Belief

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18.—The seven-foot wall of water in the North Canadian river which delayed Oklahoma City early Tuesday was rolling eastward with diminished volume today.

Due at Wicketta during the night, the crest was still above the city early today, according to advices here. The river was falling at Wicketta 200 points eastward.

With the fall of the river in advance of the crest, weather bureau officials here today believed the North Canadian flood menace to the state past.

Connors Tells How Nehf Lost, Picks Zev to Win Horse Race

Giant Pitcher Dazzled by Texas Figures, Unable to Put Steam on Ball in the Crucial Game

BY MAURICE T. CONNORS.
(Port Arthur's Champion Fan at The Recent World Series. Now At The Horse Race.)

Special to The News.
BELMONT PARK, L. I., Oct. 18.—When I was kidnapped by about 600 fellow employees of the oil refinery and placed on the train bound for the World Series, I was told not to come back until thirty days, the period of the trial refused elapsed. Nearly two weeks have passed. I have two weeks left.

I have seen the series and they are mine.

Julius Caesar, who won the first world series a couple of thousand years ago has nothing on me.

"I came, I saw, I conquered," too. The lot of battle is thickly loaded up in Pierp Morgan's banking house, in a room the walls of which are five feet thick and guaranteed against moths, rust, burglars and the stock exchange.

Today I am in a position to tell the inside story of how the Giants lost the crucial game of the series.

How It Happened

It was this way.

Art Nehf, who was put in the pitcher's box by Johnny McGraw had been asking me some things about Texas. I had told him that you could stick the state of New York in Texas about a dozen times, and still have enough left over, which if it was in Europe, would be enough to start another world war.

Nehf didn't say very much about it. He seemed to be doing quite a bit of thinking. He thought it should be the other way around, he said.

"Art," I said, "it's 750 miles from Amarillo to Brownsville. If you used the Panhandle as the axis and twisted the other end of the state around it would reach into Canada. If you twisted it to the west it would go to California. If you don't believe it ask Babe Ruth. He's a Texas fan and has the figures."

Art told me Babe Ruth and he went on very good diplomatic relations. Seems that Babe had a habit of knocking Art for a home run every once in a while.

After the game I said to Art, "Art, how come you didn't have more on the ball? Of course I'm not complaining, since you did me a good turn, but I can't figure out why you, a steady old war horse who never showed any nerves should suddenly kick over the traces and let the Yanks make you for the start of six runs in one inning."

"Hypnotic suggestion," said Nehf. "You're ahead of me now," says I. "What do you mean—hypnotic suggestion?"

"Well, it was this way," said the (Turn to Page 2, Column 2)

JAMAIL, BROWN, HELD FOR BOND

Port Arthurians Accused of Houston Crime

Special to The News.
HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 18.—Bonds totalling $17,500 were asked for the release here today of J. M. (Munoz) Jamail and C. F. (Munoz) Brown, following an examining trial on charges alleged to have grown out of an assault made on Edward Gill and the burglarizing of Arthur Eeles' place here Tuesday night.

Eeles on the stand told that he had known the two men in Port Arthur, where Jamail formerly ran a cigar store and drove a hire car.

Brown's bonds were fixed at $8000 and Jamail's at $11,500.

According to the testimony introduced at the preliminary hearing by Felix Jamail went to the latter's place early in the morning and asked for "Henry." He further stated Jamail then kicked in the door and the two ransacked the place.

When arrested a blank sack containing bonds signed by two Houston lawyers was found on Brown, arresting officers testified.

Jamail is under a five-year sentence here now for the robbery of a group of British sailors of fur value at $15,000. The firm it was claimed, had been smuggled from Russia and stolen from the sailors by two men and a woman. An appeal is now in the criminal court of appeals in behalf of Jamail.

The two men were making efforts to secure their bonds at noon.

Klan Issue Before Vets

EFFORTS TO KEEP ISSUE OUT FAIL

Drai' Vote Results in Tabling Resolution

OFFERS SUBSTITUTE

Frisco Man Flays Order as 'Un-American'

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The Ku Klux Klan issue, in a veiled resolution form, was sent to the floor of the American Legion convention here today.

The resolution declared: "We consider any individual, group of individuals or organizations which create or foster racial, religious or class strife among our people, or which take into their own hands the enforcement of law the determination of guilt or infliction of punishment to be un-American, a menace to our liberties and destructive to our fundamental law."

"We consider such action by an individual group or organized organization with ideals and purposes of the American Legion."

The resolutions committee also recommended appointment of a committee to study plans for permanent world peace and endorsed France's occupation of the Ruhr.

Thomas W. Miller, chairman of the resolutions committee and who is federal alien property custodian, moved adoption of the committee's entire report, including the resolution aimed at the Klan, as soon as he had read the report to the convention.

William McLean of Kansas moved that the resolution—known as the "law and order" measure—be considered separately from the main report and then moved that it be tabled.

Lieutenant Governor Ogels of Washington objected to such procedure.

British Denunciation.

An oral vote resulted in the motion to table the resolution.

Kendrick, San Francisco Knight of Columbus, then offered a substitute for the committee's resolution and it was ordered read.

Kendrick's resolution specifically mentioned the Klan and pronounced it "destructive to American ideals. It contained a violent denunciation of the organization.

Kendrick then started a bitter attack on the Klan particularly charging it with meddling in religious affairs.

Insanity Plea for Star Gazer Held for Murder

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Oct. 18.—Claiming that Arthur Correll, crippled astrolator and plotter of crime is insane, his attorneys applied today for permission to change their client's plea of not guilty. Judge John C. Kendall was expected to rule on the application late today.

Correll who previously pleaded guilty will be tried by a jury for the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ebba Correll whom he claims the stars forecast put to death. He is also accused of planning 20 other crimes, under directions he said were transmitted to him by the planets.

MOTHER HELD ON GIRL'S STORY

Charge of Child Abandonment Is Filed

Mrs. C. H. Reiser, Port Ridge Thursday morning was arrested on charges of child abandonment by Constable H. F. Baker and Deputy Riley, following an investigation of complaints filed by neighbors relative to the alleged mistreatment of her 13-year-old daughter.

Several neighbors appeared before police Tuesday and asked that an investigation be made, following claims of finding the 13-year-old girl asleep on the prairie Tuesday morning.

At the time she was found she told a tale of having been driven from home by her parents and of having slept for two nights on the prairie grass on the side of the marsh.

School authorities and county officials investigated the case and warrants charging child abandonment were issued for the arrest of both parents.

The 13-year-old girl was taken by juvenile authorities and given a home until final disposition of the case against her parents is made.

SLAPPED HORSE, FINED, SLAPPED WIFE, IS FREE

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—William Dillman was fined $20 by Judge Matthews in city court when he admitted slapping his horse.

A few minutes later Judge Matthews freed David Hoffman after reprimanding him for slapping his wife.

SEEK CHANGES IN BOND PLAN

Objections to Big Issue Before Joint Meet

Changes from the program outlined by the city commission to be developed from the proposed million dollar bond issue were advocated last night in the advisory board's meeting in the commission's rooms.

Representative bodies from various parts of town appeared before the body asking changes in the program which would bring more benefit to the city.

The committee was asked to reconsider before making their definite decision.

Firm on Seventh Paving

Changes advocated in the series of objections were the opening of Sixth street to the eastern city limits, the paving of Tenth street, the opening of Tenth street to the west end, and improvement of the Stillwell and DeQueen boulevard systems.

The opening of Sixth street to the west end was asked to give the residents of that vicinity an outlet without making it necessary to come up to Proctor or one of the other streets to get out to the Beaumont road.

The proposition was turned down because it would necessitate the improvement of undeveloped territory in that vicinity. The opening of Tenth street was offered as a remedy of the condition.

Efforts were made to have the commission reconsider their paving of Seventh street in the interests of economy, but it was said that something must be done to relieve Proctor street of bearing the burden of the Beaumont road traffic.

A compromise was offered, but rejected, in the way of paving Tenth street in place of Seventh street, because it was said Seventh street would benefit a greater number of people from all sections of town.

Sewerage plans and additions to the fire fighting equipment of the city were approved by the board.

Friday night members of the improvement board will meet with City Engineer Herpin at which time the specifications of the improvements will be discussed.

The advisory board approved the suggested improvements.

Among those who dispensed the details at length were G. N. Bliss, H. L. Drake, G. H. Eubank, E. L. Stuckey, Herbert Henderson, J. J. Stripling, H. L. Stevenson, C. H. Whittington, H. F. Barker and others.

PHANTOM SIREN AWES DRIVERS

Motorcycle Fooling Motorists Is Death Lure—Chief

Some one in Port Arthur has a siren on his motorcycle that resembles the noise emitted by the fire trucks and the ambulances.

The siren has been "troubling" motorists drivers here, who have given right of way upon hearing it, but who, getting used to the noise, have come to think that it is neither the fire truck nor the ambulances.

This is going to cause a serious accident some day. Fire Chief Charles Reed told the commissioners during their regular session this morning, and the siren should be removed from the cycle. Some day the fire trucks or the ambulances will make a run, and some one driver taking the sound of the siren for the motorcycle, etc., will not give the right of way.

The commission postponed the chief the matter would be gone into and an effort made to locate the siren and have it removed.

Beg Pardon

In the list of directors of the Home-stead Building and Loan association printed yesterday in The News the name of F. C. Plummer was omitted.

MUELLER FIGHTS TO BACK TIME

Ultimatum Expires, Awaits Further Orders

GRAVE DANGER SEEN

Stresemann Insists on Moderate Course

By Local Press.
BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The minister of defense this evening instructed General Mueller to Dresden to use police only to dissolve the Saxon communist "red hordes."

The order was interpreted as a complete breakdown by the federal government which had previously threatened to use the army.

Mueller was instructed to hold his troops in reserve.

Loss of Prestige.

The order came only after several hours hot debate between government leaders. A section of the cabinet, it was understood, however, favored letting Mueller go ahead in using the army to enforce federal supremacy in Bavaria.

Chancellor Stresemann, however, insisted on a moderate course.

Montrose Stresemann dispatches indicated the federal government was continuing its attitude of contempt toward the Reich.

Observers saw grave danger of a further lessening of federal prestige as a result of the breakdown.

DOETSCHER'S REMARKS CONSIDERED TREASON

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—The Saxon situation was checked up by National Dictator Goetter this afternoon.

General Mueller, representative of the national dictator, sent a letter to the Saxon socialist-communist government steps to enforce its ultimatum, saying he would take no part until he has received instructions from Goetter.

Mueller previously had demanded that the Saxon regime announce its stand toward inflammatory utterances of its Minister of Finance Doetscher by 11 a. m.

Doetscher Considered Traitor

Doetscher's remarks were considered a virtual treason by the representatives of the Reich.

Thenceforth a group of Saxon townspeople, headed by the plain troops to use the army today to break up the "red hordes" considered military organization, straggled through the streets.

Surprise was felt over the statement by the Berlin government that it would await Mueller's action and support him. Many were unable to explain this in the face of what was generally called Mueller's breakdown from his threat of yesterday.

ROTARIANS DISCUSS PROPOSED BOND ISSUE

The proposed million dollar bond issue to care for needed improvements in the city of Port Arthur was discussed before members of the Rotary club today by Mayor Logan and City Engineer Herpin.

Chairman of the proposed improvements together with notes were displayed in order that Rotarians could better grasp the details of the proposed projects.

STORM WARNING

Tropical Disturbance Is Reported in Caribbean

The United States weather bureau today issued a storm warning for the southern part of the United States and the regions of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea. The warning was removed from the Observer-Gazette.

A second gust storm has moved rapidly westward and it is not over the middle Mississippi valley. The warning stated.

A tropical storm, apparently central some distance southwest of Sable Island and its moving northwesterly, is advancing rapidly toward the western Caribbean sea. Press reports also mention the central Gulf of Mexico but apparently without definite center of disturbance.

WORLD FAIR
IN LONDON, 1924

Expect Quarter Million to Go
From Here to Fair

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Nearly a quarter of a million Americans are expected to visit the British Empire Exhibition next summer and fall.

Without encroaching on the American title of "World's Fair," the organizers of the British Empire Exhibition modestly admit that there will have the largest, most and best of everything.

Americans in San Francisco and St. Louis in their minds will be on hand to point out mistakes and failures, but from His Majesty King George V, who is patron of the exhibition, right down to the keeper of the meanest gate, there is an intention to put the British Empire's party over without other mistakes or failures.

Work on the exhibition grounds at Wembley has been under way for months. The tremendous buildings are designed for permanency. There is a stadium reported to be the largest in the world.

When it was first used last spring for the finals of the English football season it proved to be too small, despite its premier position, and tens of thousands of the 250,000 would-be spectators flocked and tore down gates and hand rails.

That won't happen again, according to the exhibition manager. New and stronger gates and hand rails have been installed and the seating capacity increased by a few thousands.

The British Empire Exhibition opens in June and continues for at least six months. It is even possible that the show will be made permanent.

CLASSICS BLAMED FOR
"YES, WE HAVE NO"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Yes, we have no bananas. The popular jazz tune is, in fact, a combination of the strains from three classical pieces: "Hallelujah Chorus," "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," and "Swing N. the Home."

THRALL MAN HAS HAD SAME HAT 26 YEARS

THRALL, Oct. 18.—A. H. Imhoff, a blacksmith, has a big 6 Stinson hat that he has owned for 26 years. It has a very broad brim and apparently no worse for the wear.

He says that the hat at that time cost 25¢ but doubts his ability to get one as good in the present day.

BIG SHIPMENT OF SHEEP
BIG SHIPMENTS

Big shipments of Howard county's sheep, some of which will ship out sheep from 15 ranches 15 miles north or here to his ranch in the Big Lake section, 100 miles southwest of Big Springs.

Roosevelt's Career
Told in Scrapbooks

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—When the restored birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt is dedicated as a museum of Americanism Oct. 27 interest is likely to center in the scrapbooks in which the career of Theodore Roosevelt, from candidate for assemblyman to the close of his picture-poster career, is recorded in pasted newspaper clippings.

The first scrapbook was begun by Theodore Roosevelt, father of the late president. Subsequent books were kept by T. R. himself, and the latter ones were clipped and pasted by members of his family. The early scrapbooks contain quotations in Colonel Roosevelt's handwriting, as well as letters written while he was at Harvard.

The beautiful and costly riding outfit presented by the Brazilian government to Colonel Roosevelt at the time of his visit to South America on the River of Doubt expedition, forms another attractive addition to the collection.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, sister of the present assistant secretary of the navy, has contributed to the Roosevelt House collection the medals in which the former president was decorated.

EXPLOSION IS CAUSE OF FIRE AT TAHOKA

TAHOKA, Oct. 18.—The fire department Thursday night prevented a destructive fire. As it was a tailor shop, barber shop and Rex Furniture store were the losers.

Night Watchman Lee and Sheriff Swafford were standing in front of 577 Taylor street when a loud explosion was heard in the tailor shop, back of the barber shop. At the same time the plate glass window by which they were standing was blown into splinters around them, some of the glass cutting Lee's hand. In a second's time the interior was in flames, and quickly spread to the furniture store in an adjoining room in the same building. The fire department soon had the flames under control.

LAW IS ATTACKED IN LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

AUSTIN, Oct. 18.—Comptroller Lou A. Smith has gone to Beaumont with records of his department bearing on the vote cast on the statewide prohibition amendment, to be used in the trial of a case wherein the validity of the adoption of the amendment is assailed.

In a case at San Marcos, involving the same question, Comptroller Smith pointed out, the trial judge refused to consider the plea and held that the time to hold an attack on the prohibition amendment comes too late. There is a similar case in Harris county, where the same question was raised.

TWO SETS OF TWINS ARE BORN AT LAMAR

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Two sets of twins were born in the rural districts of Lamar county. Twin boys were born to Dr. J. L. Armstrong and wife at Baldtown, and a boy and girl were born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Phillips of Taylorsville. The children are normal and healthy.

WEALTHY MAN STILL MISSING

Alto Sawmill Owner Missing
Since September

ALTO, Texas, Oct. 18.—Despite constant efforts of Cherokee county officials, no further trace of E. J. Hocking, prominent saw mill owner of this city, who mysteriously disappeared on Sept. 16, has been found.

The last clue of him which officials have obtained is that he was last seen in Palestine, Texas, but this is not certain, although he is known to have wired his secretary from Jacksonville, stating that he would be home on the morning of Sept. 17, and that he was in that city on a lumber deal.

All personal effects were left suddenly at his boarding place in this city and business transactions were dropped, indicating that he had left on an extended trip. He has no relatives in this city, and none in this part of the state as far as known. A residence in the center of the city stands half completed, exactly as he left it, workmen having no instructions to proceed.

His secretary remains in this city awaiting word from him, and is at loss to know what to do with his business affairs which are very pressing.

No motive has been advanced for his disappearance by business associates, other than it is strongly believed that he has met with foul play. He always carried considerable cash with him.

What It Costs to Make a Real Hat

By JOHN O'DRISCOLL
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, Oct. 18.—What does it cost to make a woman's hat? A strike of milliner's helpers, taking in practically all the well-known houses in Paris, which has just been ended by an increase of 25 per cent in wages, brought the question up before the official referee appointed by the government and the workers. The milliners contended that their profits did not permit them to grant the wage increase demanded.

Here are statistics which show the exact cost of a hat sold by such a firm as Lewis or Jeanne Lanvin for 250 or 400 francs, or about $20 to $25, which is above the average price for a hat except for the wealthy.

Felt ..... 70 francs, or $5.00
Wire, muslin, etc. 20 francs, or 2.00
Trimming ..... 30 francs, or 2.00
Wages, 2 to 4 days 20 francs, or $2.25

Total ..... 140 francs, or $12.25

The milliners insisted that rent, insurance, publicity and general expenses must be added to these figures. Therefore, they pleaded, if they were required to increase the wage of their girls they would be obliged to raise the prices of their hats. The girls are to get in future 350 francs a month, or about $23, with a noon-day meal. Most of the girls complain the "meal" is only a shadow and that they have to go to a restaurant to feed themselves.

TWO WEATHERFORD MEN ARE CHAMPION PICKERS

MCKINLEY, Texas, Oct. 18.—Best cotton picking records so far reported in the McKinley country for one day are given by D. J. Gibson. Two Weatherford men picked a total of 1,200 pounds. One of the men picked 600 and the other 600. Gibson has gathered twenty-three bales this season and will get about six more, he said.

STOKES IS CALM AT TRIAL

Lone Woman Is Desperately Fighting Millions

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The spotlight of the world's attention is centered today on one red-haired, determined woman—Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes—who having won one of the most contested divorce suits of the decade, faces a second trial because of a technical error in court procedure.

She must refute 40 charges of misconduct brought up by her husband, the elderly millionaire.

She faces an army of recruits from all parts of the country, each waiting to offer evidence against her character.

She is confronted by the Stokes millions, every dollar ready to spend its power and influence against her. Every set and deed of her life is to be aired and spread out for a second time before a sensation-loving world.

And yet, like William Tell, this little Titan-haired woman, who is 36 and would pass for 10 years younger, sets her mouth in a firm line, squares her shoulders, looks her accusers in the face and says to them—"Shoo!"

To get into the courtroom each day she has to pass through corridors lined with eager, curious eyes of those willing to stand around half a day just to get a glimpse of her.

But if she were passing through a drawing room filled with friends she could not be more calm or gracious. She takes her seat at the table, opposite her accuser as if she were sitting down to a hand of bridge, or waiting for a cup of tea.

And while the lawyers get excited and the judge calls order, while Stokes himself confers with his lawyers or gets up for a stroll in the corridors, while the witnesses get muddled in their testimony and the reporters take busy notes, she maintains the most unpersonal interest and the most stoical calm.

She's Calm.

She is the one person at the trial who is composed and apparently under no nervous strain. She smiles frequently, and never during a whole day did I see a look of stern or anger, no matter what was being brought up against her.

"Because," she explained with a smile, "I believe in justice. I believe in right."

"I believe in believing in justice and right no matter how unfavorable things look. If you aren't guilty, a million witnesses and a million dollars can't make you so, can they? So why worry?"

"Of course it isn't pleasant to listen to what I have to do in court. It's like an unpleasant problem play, or a bad chapter in a novel book. If it were true, it would be too terrible. But it's just fiction, and I take it as such, with full confidence that the jury and the world at large will be able to distinguish between fact and malicious fancy."

Asks Vindication.

"I can hold out as long as the opposition does and I'm going to till clear my name before the world and before my children. If the case lasts for a month, I'll not break down or lose my courage. I promise you that."

In appearance she looks exactly like a description of what the well-dressed business woman should wear. Her trim blue serge suit, with a feminine white blouse beneath, her little blue turban which allows just a bit of the red hair to show beneath, the veil keeping it in perfect place, and the gray fox fur kept at a becoming angle and the gray gloves all further the impression of her perfect poise and control.

Another thing I noticed was that she refrained from manifesting any concern or superiority when the first witness against her walked under the testimony and was charged with perjury.

"I only want to vindicate myself in this court," she said. "I don't want anyone else to suffer on my account."

SLAYER DOES NOT 2.

COLUMBIAN, Ohio, Oct. 18.—The Supreme Court has set Nov. 2 as the date for the execution of Irvin Leroy Dayton, convicted of the murder of Arthur Moore, near the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Dayton, May 19, 1922. Dayton had been given a stay of execution pending appeal which was denied by the court.

SYRIAN COFFIN PICTURES DEAD

Likeness of Deceased Drawn On Ancient Sarcophagi

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—What is regarded by such scholars as Prof. James H. Breasted of the University of Chicago, Prof. C. C. Torrey of Yale and others as one of the greatest archaeological discoveries is that of the pictured coffins (sarcophagi). Pictures of them have just been brought to Chicago by Dr. Geo. A. Ford, for 14 years a Presbyterian missionary in Syria. The date of the coffins is about 600 years before Christ.

The peculiar value of the pictured coffins is that the faces are likenesses of the persons buried in them, each one showing individual peculiarities instead of the conventional carvings common to Egyptian mummies. The faces of the coffins—one white marble showing the face of a beautiful woman of intellectual Hellenistic type—is valued at $10,000.

Some of the rarities of Dr. Ford's collection are the heads of Persian bulls showing the recent dominance of Persia in Syria. The bulls, it is believed, adorned the strappings placed in Sidon, long since destroyed.

DENTON'S DIVORCE RECORD IS SMALL

DENTON, Texas, Oct. 18.—District court records here disclose the fact that during 1922 only one divorce was issued in Denton county to every 10.2 marriages, whereas the record for the state was one divorce for every 9.3 marriages.

YOUTHS ARE CAUGHT STEALING COTTON

CROWLEY, Texas, Oct. 18.—Two youths of Crowley's picking cotton in this section were apprehended a few days ago attempting to sell alleged stolen cotton.

Needle in Bed Basis $5,000 Damage Suit

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 18.—A common, ordinary, every day steel needle, cost Orlis Turney $5,000.

William Angel has filed suit for that amount in common pleas court against Turney. In his petition he states that Turney is proprietor of the Colonial hotel, and on June 7 he rented a room in that hotel.

When he went to bed his leg in a counterpane in the mattress, the needle running into his left leg below his knee to a distance of about an inch and breaking, leaving an inch of the steel in his leg. Angel states that the wound since has become painful and has necessitated an operation and doctor bills, as well as incapacitating him for work.

HUNTING ACCIDENT VICTIM IS BETTER

SHERMAN, Texas, Oct. 18.—Tom Sloan, 35-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sloan of Pilot Grove, who was badly wounded last week when a gun in the hands of a companion was accidentally discharged, while the boys were on a hunting trip, will recover. He was brought to the Sherman hospital and for a while it was thought the limb would have to be amputated but it is now believed this will not have to be done.

BENJAMIN CITIZEN HURT IN AN ACCIDENT

BENJAMIN, Texas, Oct. 18.—A back, in which A. F. Hunter and T. Henderson of Munday, Texas, were riding, was struck by an automobile, driven by C. R. Tabbs of Benjamin, Texas. Henderson was thrown from the back. Henderson was brought to Benjamin, where he was given medical attention.

FORMER TEXAN BECOMES ALIEN

Forfeits Citizenship in Leaving Within 5 Years

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Oct. 18.—Because he took up foreign residence within five years after receiving his certificate of naturalization as an American citizen, the United States government is seeking to cancel the citizenship of Theodore S. Baltazzi in federal court here.

The petition filed by the government sets forth that the defendant was issued a certificate of naturalization in Bexar county in 1901 and that he left the United States two years later, taking up his residence, first in the East Indies and later in Asia Minor, living in Smyrna until the destruction of that city, when he fled to Athens, Greece, where he now remains as a refugee.

Attached to the application for the cancellation of Baltazzi's citizenship is a certified statement of the American consul at Smyrna, in which it is stated that Baltazzi owns four farms in Asia Minor, which contain 1750 acres.

Jailed, B'Gosh, But Pays Nary a Cent For Killing Skunks

WATSAU, Wis., Oct. 18.—Farmer A. Schneck is boiling with just indignation and sizzling with righteous wrath. Skunks ruined his melons, killed his chickens, tickled his dog, and soiled his farmyard, but what the skunks did isn't a patch on what the state of Wisconsin did. The state put him in jail for 30 days when he refused to pay a $50 fine for killing five skunks and setting traps under his barn for others.

The Schneck farm is in the town of Bloch, 14 1/2 miles from the county seat. Schneck, a dairy farmer, and Louis Hirsch, under-sheriff, found five skunk holes in Schneck's hay barn and four traps set under the barn.

Schneck told the court Saturday his boy, 18, must have trapped the skunks and set the four traps without his knowledge. He told of the damage done by the skunks during his 12 years' residence on the farm.

After the court imposed the fine, the farmer asked if he could sue the state for damage done by the skunks. He declared the law is foolish if it won't let a man protect his own property. He threatened to engage a Milwaukee attorney and sue the state and sue the deputy sheriff also for camping on the farm without permission.

WEAVING OF HAIRCLOTH IS ALMOST LOST ART
CENTRAL FALLS, N. J., Oct. 18.—Grandmother's fine old haircloth sofa has no longer a place in Rhode Island society.

The gradual disappearing of haircloth furniture, the passing of haircloth as a means of constructing form-fitting clothing, has brought an end to the prosperity of the American Haircloth Co., which has wound up its affairs and disposed of its plant here.

The company and its predecessors for 62 years had made this the principal haircloth center in the United States. Formerly its pay roll was said to have reached $900,000, but in later years, as customs changed and the demand for haircloth fell off, seven persons were able to keep abreast of the output.

The plant, covering an area of 27,629 square feet of ground, has been sold.

Everett, 35, Lost, But Cops Help Pa And Ma Find Him

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 18.—"Our Everett is lost!" Mr. and Mrs. Chesbro, Whitewater, informed Sgt. Peter Dineen at central station. They told how they had left their boy in charge of the family flier while they walked down town.

Sgt. Dineen sent a sympathetic car while the couple—each about 90—routined on their tale. They had driven from Whitewater to visit the big city. Their boy was at the wheel. At Third and Sycamore streets, they ran into the heavy traffic and decided to park the car and walk. They left Everett in the machine, but when they were ready to go home, they couldn't find their way to the boy and the car.

Two detectives began a search and finally found a car bearing the correct license number.

"Wonder where Everett is?" asked Detective Kelling to Detective Telfan. "Here I am," spoke up a heavy bass voice, and Everett, 35, unfolding his 6 feet 1 inch, climbed out of the rear seat.

CAR CRASH FATAL TO SANTA ANNA WOMAN
SANTA ANNA, Texas, Oct. 18.—Mrs. C. E. Garrison, aged 45, died at the local hospital from injuries received in a car wreck which occurred five miles east of here on the Brownwood road.

Mrs. Garrison, her husband and daughter were coming from Brownwood, the daughter doing the driving and in an attempt to pass a cotton wagon while driving very fast the car turned over three times, which completely demolished it, and fatally injured Mrs. Garrison.

BABE MISSING; POLICE SCOUT MURDER PLOT
ASHLAND, Wis., Oct. 18.—Murder theories were abandoned by officials who have been attempting to solve the mystery which surrounded the disappearance of Ralph Henry, 3, from the farm home of his parents near Mellen three weeks ago. John Henry, father of the child, has been freed after questioning.

SUFFERED 6 YEARS WITH ACUTE INDIGESTION

Emphasizing that the money he spent for the first bottle of KATRENA SYRUP was the best he spent of his life, Mr. L. H. Leach of Houston, Texas, writes as follows:

"I suffered for six years with acute indigestion and after experimenting to my sorrow with scores of cures that didn't cure, I had almost given up hope of ever getting my condition, when upon the recommendation of a friend I invested in a small bottle of your wonderful preparation. What was the turn of events? The results from that small bottle were sufficient to convince me that I was on the road to health. I bought a 10-cent bottle of the fifth bottle. I took the last of the fifth bottle. Now I eat, whenever and where I please without suffering untold agonies. I consider the money I spent for the first bottle of KATRENA SYRUP the best investment of my life. In dividing it with my health, I got the best of both worlds. I had almost despaired of (Signed) L. H. LEACH, Houston, Texas."

And this is true. One of hundreds who have suffered with indigestion that have been relieved by this wonderful preparation of a prominent stomach specialist.

For quick relief from indigestion, stomach trouble, heartburn, gas on the stomach, etc., you need but call on your druggist for a bottle of KATRENA SYRUP.

Only 10c and $1.00 a bottle and your health is yours. If it fails to do as claimed, your money is refunded. No question about it. Your druggist is instructed to give you a full money guarantee.

CONNERS TELLS HOW NEHF LOST

Beaumont, Va. Rhode Island

"You got to telling me a lot of hard-boiled facts about Texas and they stuck in my craw. I didn't quite believe them but I never heard any thing like it before and I tried to find out. I asked Johnny McGraw how far it was from Amarillo to Brownsville, and he said it was far enough for him to get a home run off of me if I didn't water, sure."

"Well, when I picked up the ball and got to winning for a dazzer that would look like it went over the home plate but would miss it by a yard, I got to thinking of what you told me. I ran back a pretty long ball, and when I got to thinking of what a throw it would be across the state of Texas, my arm got tired and I couldn't get it over. It seemed that instead of pitching from the box to the home plate I was leaving 'em across the state of Texas and I couldn't stand up under it."

"That's how come."

"If that's hypnosis suggestion then I'll win again next year."

"If you had told me the figures on Rhode Island or Delaware the Yankees would have lost," Neff said.

"I'm taking a pass-around Belmont Park. There's a couple of cab horses that are going to try to beat each other around the track here Saturday and there seems to be quite a fuss stirred up over it."

"I don't quite get the drift of it all yet, but I will."

"There's a bunch of fellows who are talking about 8 to 5, 5 to 3."

"What do you mean, 8 to 5?" I asked one. "What is this a horse ball game?"

"No, you poor fish, it's odds on the race, Caporus against Ze," the man said.

"This is out of my field, but I'm going to stick it out and see what kind of a game it is."

"If I find there's anything to write about I'll let you know."

Papyrus is a British horse and Ze came from New York. Papyrus has a wild and temperamental spirit most of his time scrambling the horses' teeth with a toothbrush and manhandling his feet. Ze lays back his ears and gives him the horse laugh.

On the race of things I look for Ze to win, just on general principles.

"I may experiment a little with my 'jack' that I won in the series, just to see if I won in the series by foot, but because I had the dope."

MOTHER FIGHTS FOR BOY'S LIFE

Long Drive to Operating Table Ends in City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18.—With her son, Cliff Eoff, in a hospital here awaiting an operation for the removal of a carcinoma from his chest, Mrs. Eoff of Chicago, arrived today from a three-day fight against a cold and wind.

The lad drove the hurt into his throat while loading hay near Carnegie Monday. Efforts of local physicians to remove the tumor were unavailing. Train service was cut off by flood. The near-frantic mother loaded the suffering child into an automobile and started to Oklahoma City.

Forced to make long detours, due to washouts, bogged in mudholes a dozen times and slowed by muddy roads, the mother struggled against the cold and the child's suffering torment. The child gradually grew worse. Nurturing the almost-chill boy and driving with one hand, the mother drove into Capitol Hill shortly after dark last night to find her way barred by the swollen North Canadian river.

Solon Arrests State Health Commissioner

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18.—Dr. A. L. Davenport, state health commissioner, was taken into custody by W. L. Cunningham, Spelman, member of the house representative committee, following a disturbance at the capitol today.

Cunningham accused Davenport of having attacked J. A. Blizard, former employee in the state health department, while in an elevator and attempted physical violence as the two men stepped from the cage.

Girls Wear Clothes That The Matrons Dare Not

There is no longer a convincing theory that certain fashions are for the young. It is better to say that the old should be contented. Girls are right in believing that fashions are conceived for them. They recognize few limitations.

There are mothers who try to impress upon the malleable mind that youth should fly all the signals of youth. They attempt to impress sophistication. They abolish black from the wardrobe. But asking a girl to dress a certain way without meeting opposition is too rare a result to speak of as a commonplace.

The truth is that the young girl has the world of fashion flung at her for whatever disposal she may wish of it. She is the symbol of the new. It is her type of figure, her loose, disipated carriage, snatching and snatching at the kind of clothes that women should wear. If she achieves a contrast between her clothes and those of every age who imitate and envy her, she has accomplished much. She should attempt to look really younger than she is. That's the game for her to play. It may not be to her liking, until she sees the fun of it. But if she makes up her mind to choose from a wealth of fashions the things that are impossible for the middle-aged woman she is canny.

Such things are at her disposal this season. There are tan slippers, immense cravats, elongated midie blouses, extra short skirts, brilliant and eccentric, peasant sleeves, set bolero jackets, plain and embroidered, to be found in the shops. It takes a brave middle-aged woman to attempt these items. Even the young married set are not so keen about them, unless they are touched with more formality. Hoops at the hips continue in fashion for the young when they dance and dine, but they are not smart for those who have passed the first milestones of youth. That should give the schoolgirl content for she likes hoops. They serve that never-fading love for the theatrical that is born with a female child.

To be smart, says Dame Fashion, the hair must be sleek and as short as a boy's at the back even though it fluffs over the temples. It may be parted on the side or in the middle. It must look wet, an effect obtained by brushing it with brilliantine. The young girl can wear her hair in this manner better than most of our sex. She will find it far more graceful than the frizzed, outstanding mop of burned locks. If she wants to be very French, she will search for a young comb such as her grandmothers wore to push back the front of the hair.

Short curls are good at the temples. They should not be ragged and jagged, but smoothly curled, in the Victorian manner. This season the cloche will rule. It suits a school girl. It is of felt with a ribbon band and cockade at side, two ornamental pins run through the crown. Nothing new in it, but its excellent appearance justifies its longevity.

It is pure bravado to make a tangle of green satin, but it is done. There is a craze to match it worn under a distended Peter Pan collar on a white shirtwaist. This Peter Pan collar, by the way, was so enthusiastically taken up by the well-dressed Frenchwomen in the summer that it returns to our clothes, via Beauville. Other tans are built of velvet, which is the traditional fabric for such hats; some are of suede, some of taffeta. Embroidered suede is very good. Gray, with silver monogram or school crest at one side, dark blue with dull red embroidery in a fanciful design, deep purple with black safe combinations.

MRS. M. F. BLEDSOE'S bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home at her lovely Lake Shore drive home was a lovely affair, the personnel of guests including members of the Tuesday Bridge Club.

The pink motif selected by the hostess.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and boggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, so you have backache, sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, the tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get clogged with water and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Water is a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Epsom salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then get free. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to eliminate acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus after relieving the kidney weakness.

Be sure to remember, cannot be too often repeated, that Epsom salts are not a habit-forming drug. Switch lots of water. By all means have your kidneys cleaned by your kidneys at least once a year.

NOTE BY SPECIAL MESSENGER FROM WALTER BURKE TO MRS. MUTH ELLINGTON MY DEAR RUTH:

I know when I am beaten. The moment I saw Leslie Prescott enter the restaurant I knew it was all over with me.

Ruth, I have loved you. I do love you and always will. I had not thought I could bring a little happiness into your saddened eyes. I would not have proposed the trip abroad. But I know now that you never could have been happy under the circumstances.

Your brilliant ancestry and education would have made me regret smooth or any day that you might snatch surreptitiously from convention.

I am going to go abroad tomorrow. It was selfish of me to want you before you could come to me in honor. Go back with Leslie, Ruth, and free yourself from that our who never appreciated you.

In a year I will come for you. It is very probable that you will hear from me from time to time, but whether you hear or not, remember that perhaps the one decent thing in all my life has been my love for you.

Enclosed please find the tickets. The train goes at 8 o'clock sharp. I'm glad you are a friend of Leslie's. Ruth, Sue is a nice little woman. I wonder if you noticed there in the restaurant that she looked troubled in her own account? I hope Jack isn't mixed up with that soundly husband of yours.

An revoir, my dear. It can never be goodbye between you and me. I dare not come back even to let you wish me God-speed because, Ruth dear, I love you. WALTER

COTTON WORM MENACES TRADE

Sen. Ransdall Claims the South's Income Threatened

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18.—Declaring the United States favorable trade balance is jeopardized by the ravages of the boll weevil and that the time has arrived for action to check the pest which threatens the south's "money" crop, United States Senator Ransdall has sent invitations to newspaper editors throughout the country to attend the annual boll weevil convention here next week.

"It is necessary to arouse the nation to its extremity of our danger," the senator declared.

Leading financiers and scientific experts from all parts of the country are expected to attend the meeting and aid in the working out of effective measures to rid the South of the weevil, which is estimated by Henry G. Hoe, secretary of the New Orleans cotton exchange, to have cost the South over $5,000,000 in the last five years.

A Scarecrow Suit

(Copyright, 1923, Associated Editors)

"I have something to show you at home that has ragged hair and legs," Natalie Clippert told Betty "Cut-out" the day after she had given her the Halloween party invitation.

"It makes me shiver to hear you say it," chuckled Betty. Natalie took Betty to her house after school and while Betty waited outside, Natalie ran upstairs. In a moment out stalked this stiff-legged scarecrow, extending a large hand. Betty started to shake it, but quickly dropped it, with a scream. The hand was clumsy and cold.

"My hands are old kid gloves stuffed with ice-cold bread dough. Won't I have fun with them at the party?" chuckled Natalie.

This scarecrow with his dull blue smock and rusty crown trousers is only one of many ideas for costumes that you may use if you are going to have a Halloween party of your own. Natalie will show you how to wear it. When you see her tomorrow you'll think she grew on a pumpkin vine!
